

But Memories - J Lym

(Hmm)

Oh no, we did it again
Don't go to replicate the time

When we were young and beautiful, I told myself:
"I'd never change, I'm still the same,
Never change, I'm still the same"
We're still young but now time is changing, twisting, turning,

All the things that's in the past I remember (I remember)
All the things we forgot I remember (I remember)
All the tears that we would hide I remember (I remember)

So who are we but memories?
Who are we but memories?
A collection of memories in time

(Hmm)

We don't know, a mystery is a memory,
How did it go in your memory? Yeah
If we let go,
Would it be forgotten? Would it be forsaken?

When we were young and beautiful, I told myself:
"I'd never change, I'm still the same,
Never change, I'm still the same"
We're still young but now time is changing, twisting, turning,

All the things that's in the past I remember (I remember)
All the things we forgot I remember (I remember)
All the tears that we would hide I remember (I remember)
